Tony Shepherd - Broker

After attending Temple University in Philadelphia, where he is originally from, Tony relocated to California in 1962 and began his career as a principal with Firestone Investments (a money-management firm for high-network individuals). In 1980 he formed his own company, Pegasus Developments, which focused mainly on Single Family and Condominium Development in the Bay Area. In March 1999 he joined Baxley Properties and divides his time between available residential/commercial land and the sale of commercial/industrial buildings.
